IRISH TREATY TO BE KEPT OUT OF WORLD'S COURT

League of Nations Asked Not to Recognize Treaty as International Pact.

COMMUNIST IN FRANCE CAUSING UNEASINESS

No Action is Taken as Yet by Council on Anglo-Egyptian Dispute.

ROME, Dec. 12.—Laying a new emphasis on the power of the Geneva peace protocol to the annexation of mainland, the international court of justice of the League of Nations adjourned yesterday with its members expressing determination to postpone a decision of the case until March meeting and inaugurate arrangements for an international conference on it.

France has given notice, through its foreign minister, that it is ready to bear her word pledges on the protocol, and henceforth submit its case to the League. France said she was ready to even extend the time of the protocol if necessary.

Monte Carlo checked.

The members of the council submitted that evening without taking any action, it was learned that one consideration entering into this case was the fact that the time had arrived in Egypt when the protocol had been signed in the interests of all and Bolsheviks not permitted to interfere.

Recent activities of the communists in France have caused a certain amount of uneasiness and have been followed closely by members of the council. Information obtained from Paris showed that the Bolsheviks were determined to obtain recognition of the covenant because England did not accept it.

On the other hand, the communists have been instrumental in the campaign to assemble in Monte Carlo.

Irish Treaty. — Le Bon, Spanish representative in the committee, reported that the members of the committee to assemble in Monte Carlo had agreed to postpone the Irish Treaty.

A subject of unusual interest was the Irish treaty. It was the announcement that Great Britain had decided that the Irish treaty not be recognized as an instrument capable of being ratified by the League of Nations. The covenant because England did not accept it.

On the other hand, the communists have been instrumental in the campaign to assemble in Monte Carlo.

It was explained that the methods followed by the animals agriculture in the detection of bovine tuberculosis is based on the result of experiments made by the methods in general practice in the United States.

The Gompers had been adopted into an Indian tribe in Canada.

George H. Hutton, Calgary, is re-elected president for Coming Year.

CALGARY, Alta., Dec. 14.—Members of the Western Canadian Livestock Union, at the concluding session of their annual convention on Saturday, voted to support the proposal of the federal department of agriculture to prohibit the importation of the cattle of the Red River valley.

Mr. Hutton, who was elected president of the union, said he had a good opinion of the covenants because England did not accept them.

By the same token, it is believed that Britain would not be able to obtain an advisory opinion from the world court of justice on the question of the validity of the convention. Only registered treaties have been registered with the court.

Constituted by the League, Spanish representatives in the committee, reported that the members of the committee to assemble in Monte Carlo had agreed to postpone the Irish Treaty.

George H. Hutton, Calgary, was re-elected president, and the vice-president, Mr. W. J. McLean, of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, and the Yukon, John E. Davies, Lacombe, Alberta, C. J. L. Wallen, Lacombe, Alberta, and George Lake, Oak Lake, Man.

Mr. Gompers was one of the principal items of business discussed at the convention.

The members of the committee to assemble in Monte Carlo were facing very difficult problems.

"NOT FORGOTTEN FUND"

Although our fund only opened on Saturday last, already we have had a fine response. It is apparent that there are many people who have "forgotten." There is one thing certain—that the more often we bring it to the public's attention the more it will be appreciated for the men who "stood to."

CHICAGO MURDERER TO HANG.

A Chicago court has sentenced a murderer to be hanged. The occurrence is unusual enough to arouse continent-wide interest, and it can even be described as unique in that city have finally decided that deliberate killing is something more than a misdemeanor. If so, the change in policy is a matter of general and even international importance. One plague spot is no longer to the whole region of the Great Lakes. Invaluable to the people of Canada, authorities were justified in taking precautionary measures when the hoof-and-mouth disease broke out in California, the Canadian public are equally entitled to feel relieved when the courts of a great U.S. city located near the border decide to hang murderers.

MUST FIRST SHOW FITNESS.

One of the ministers in the new Egyptian Government has been warning his fellow countrymen that the only way they can recover the measure of independence they recently lost is to demonstrate their ability to manage their own affairs. It will go well for the country and its people if that view prevails and his colleagues and can be made to accept it. But the new government of Egypt is somewhat in the position of a farmer who has borrowed money and given a mortgage. It is not absolute master of itself and cannot rightly expect to be.

British and other foreign investors have put millions into Egyptian public works and private business. The British Government and the country was under British jurisdiction and on the understanding that their investments would be protected by Britain. There is a sacred trust involved which no British Government could abandon and continue to exact Britain's obligation to one of its most important interests. Egypt is just as clearly defined and binding as Britain's obligations to protect Egypt against its enemies, and will be kept with the same fidelity. Zagloul and his associates have made hash of the pretension that Egypt could and would govern itself in accord with the principles of democracy. The powers taken from it are now at all likely to be restored, until confidence in Egyptian integrity and self-governing ability have been re-created.

CHILDREN NOT ABUSED.

The British delegation headed by Miss Margaret Bonfield, which recently visited Edmonton, has reported that boys and girls sent from the old English schools to Canada to attend our homes are in the majority of cases satisfied with their conditions and prospects. That should go a good way to offset the contrary impression that was given by a couple of incidents which occurred in Ontario a year or two ago. The effect of these happenings was to give people in Britain the idea that the immigrants to Canada and immigrants were subject to inhuman treatment in Canada. It is in the highest degree urgent that this libellous notion should be corrected, and the report of the delegates should help to that end.

There is room for difference of opinion as to the exact nature and amount of training boys and girls receive from Britain or any other country to Canada, or any other country. Obviously any scheme of the kind must be regulated at all stages if the bad results are not to counterbalance the good. The migrants must be selected. They must be helped in home life there is no provision for that, and will not properly be aided. And some system of inspection is necessary to "check up" on both the immigrants and their custodians. That some of the boys and girls will go wrong in spite of all possible precautions, has to be supposed. That some of "foster parents" will be less than perfect is also a fact which must be admitted. But, the allegation that Canadian farmers in any general way do not deal fairly with their wards is not substantiated by the facts.

MEN WITHOUT WORK.

Councils of several of the western cities are being called upon to supply work or give relief to idle men. The men have made known to provincial and Federal Governments to help the municipal authorities in meeting the demands. While most of the centres on the prairies have unemployment "problems" more or less serious; Vancouver seems to be confronting the most difficult situation that can result. Large numbers of men mostly young are said to be flocking there from the harvest fields and the city council has had to lay down the rule that it will accept responsibility only in the cases of men with families who are bona fide residents of the city. Councils of many smaller prairie cities have done the same for years ago. Perhaps on that account they had had decidedly less menacing situations to deal with than used to occur when it was understood that the cities were places where all who were out of work and out of funds could gather and count on being taken care of for winter.

The man who has no work and no money is due for public sympathy. But it is impossible that the taxpayers of this or any other city should undertake to create work or provide free board for all who may ask. The taxpayers are themselves men who, to work for a living and have families to support, and they have accumulated money or bought property, they have done so by saving their earnings. It is not possible to say nothing about fairness that they should also be made to undertake to keep other men with no families to support and who are quite as well able to shift for themselves. The solution of a city who has to provide for a family and finds himself without work or means has a claim to consideration which no outsider can have. To refuse help in his case would impinge suffering upon a woman and her children, and probably break up a family. It is justifiable that even taxpayers who are already carrying a heavy load should be asked to help townspeople who have fallen into such evil plight.

The single man, though a resident, has a far weaker claim to consideration and the unmarried outside has no claim at all. This is a country where any able-bodied man can take care of himself and his dependents if he will. He can do so because he either will not take what he can get, wherever it may be, or because he has squandered his summer's wages in face of the certainty that winter would bring want. Even in the latter case sympathy is not to be withheld and anything, however small, should be done.

But a citizen who has no means to dip into the pockets of the taxpayers to support such a man not to create work merely for the sake of freeing him of the necessity of hunting for work somewhere else. When that is attempted the inevitable result is that the money from all quarters flock into the city and the overall financial smashup with demands which it cannot meet.

It was stated at the council meeting on Friday that some papers in the United States have been giving Edmonton an amount of undesirable publicity, as a place where work is plentiful. That is the victim of an attempt to upload upon it the idle men of other communities. It cannot be too strongly or too widely emphasized that the conditions here are precisely the contrary. There is neither work nor free board for outsider in Edmonton. The only work which can be provided by the city will be required by the citizens of the city. The policy of the council is and has for some years been to make the taxpayers provide relief for families living in the city only. Any representations to the contrary are only made with the object of shooing idle men away from some other

THE WEALTH OF A NATION

London Times

For a long time it has been the fashion to refer to farming as the basic industry of the country, and yet, in the United States, the wealth of the nation is measured by the number of dentists, lawyers, dentists, and others of the industrial family. The main reason for inclination of politicians to recognize the intimate connection between the nation's security and the nation's welfare is that they are not so inclined. The wealth of the nation will be protected by the city of the wealth of the nation.

It appears that Mr. Royle was chosen over Mr. Kinrade upon his taking the oath of secrecy because while two of his sisters were married to men in the fight of freedom, he was the only son of a man who had attempted to nestle in the explanation of his wife's conduct, thereby being ordered from the building when the two ladies were allowed to vote.

Polar Bears Defeat Striped Jungle Cats at Cow Town

ESKIMOS HUMBLE JUNGALEERS IN THEIR OWN CALGARY LAIR

Joe McCormick Outwits Tigers and With Neatness and Despatch Gives His Team Winning Counter—Locals' Win Spoils Southerners' Inaugural Ceremonies.

CALGARY, Alta., Dec. 14.—In a game of hockey, it pays to be alert and on the job, every minute. Take advantage of the other team's mistakes and you can never tell what will happen. No better example of this can be cited than the one offered at the Arena Saturday night when several of the Tigers stood aside and watched Joe McCormick skate a distance of fifteen feet to pick up a loose puck that had been left by Briden and drive it past seven lions, out of the vision of Goal-keeper Hal Winkler, and into the net.

The rest, noted, 47 seconds after the commencement of the final period, was a 4-2 victory for the Polar Bears after two periods, and eventually gave the Edmonton Eskimos a 3 to 2 triumph over the Striped Jungle Cats in the opening game of the Western Canadian professional hockey association's goal scoring tournament for $4,000 in cash and a $1,000 backer, following Calgary's victory over the Eskimos in the regular season.

While the ice was fast during the initial period, the Eskimos took and took a two goal lead. As the racing became tougher, due to sticky ice, the Eskimos were unable to score by a hard shot from the side, the stick being held in such a manner that the sharp point hit the puck a foot out from Winkler and it cut in to the net.

Lions up: Edmonton—position: Calgariy—goal...Winkler; Simpson—defense...Durian; Johnson—forward...Morris; Stanney—forward...McGinn; Morrison—sub...Wilson; McCormick—sub...Bennet; Morrison—sub...Bennet; Kestell—sub...Mackay; Sheppard—sub...Ostman.
